Stafford, William, alleged author, earlier than 1554-1612.

Compendious or briefe examination, A, . . . (Continued, I.)

The authorship of this tract is a vexed question. Anthony à Wood, in Fasti Oxonienses, under a notice of William Stafford (1554-1612), says, "Besides this Will. Stafford, was another . . . before him in time, author of A compendium, or brief examination of certain ordinary complaints" Later Farmer attributed it to the younger Stafford. But William Lambarde possessed a manuscript copy in which he wrote, "Note that this book was published in print . . . by one W. S. in the yeare 1581; whearas it was long since penned by Sr Thomas Smythe (as some say), or, Mr Jhon Hales (as others thinke) . . . And I . . . have long had this copie of it which I caused to be written out . . . 1565." Internal evidence seems to fix 1549 as the date of the original composition.
